National Museum artwork ‘re-purposed’ for all to see

A long-scale mural celebrating sea life in Pormpuraaw has been re-purposed after artists were asked by local police to provide artwork to decorate the doors of their vehicles.

“We had painted a long large scale mural celebrating sea life which was the perfect dimensions for their doors,” Art Centre manager Paul Jakubowski said.

“The mural will be part of an important exhibition to be held in the National Museum of Australia in Canberra.

“We think it is great that it is shared with our Pormpuraaw community in this way.”

Transport to and from activities is available. Call 40604260

- Remember to always check in when visiting a venue.

Masks for Queensland

You must carry a face mask with you at all times when you leave home, unless you have a lawful reason not to. You must wear a mask in indoor spaces, such as:
