

Happy Father's Day!

Yesterday PPAC hosted a small but very successful Father's Day gathering at PUBSC under a Covid-19 safety plan.

The celebration of Father's Day reminds us of the importance and challenges of fatherhood.

CEO Ganthi Kuppusamy said it was always nice to acknowledge our fathers' contributions every year.

"It was a lovely and peaceful day with a great music," she said.

"A barbecue lunch with desserts and non-alcoholic wine and beers made it even more wonderful, as our photographs show.

"The lucky draws and membership draws added an extra excitement to the occasion.

"I would like to thank all the people who came to support this Father's Day event and helped to make it a successful day."

Thanks to PPAC staff Peter Yunkaporta, Harry Holroyd, Sid Moore, Nigel Sullivan and Peter Cochran for their time and efforts organising the day, and to Anna and her team at the Club, who did a great job preparing the lunch and venue for this event.

Our Lucky draws winners were:

- Bill Coleman
- Carlo Edwards
- Shae Kelly
- Faye/Paul Jakubowski
- Peter Tybingoomba
- Freedom
- Timothy Tybingoomba
- Paul Norman

And the Membership draw:

- Shae and Mitch
- Peter Tybingoomba
- Harry Holroyd
- Freedom
- George Salleh

What can you do if your child is being bullied?

Listen, be calm and supportive – they should always feel okay about talking to you about their problems.

Tell them bullying is wrong and they should be upset about it.

Ask them what they think you can do to help – work together to think about what can be done to make things better.

Remind them it's not their fault and there will be a way to sort it out.

Some things you can say:

- Be cool, try not to get upset or angry, which is probably what the bully wants you to do.
- Trying to fight back can make the situation worse and you could get hurt, or be blamed for starting the trouble.
- Try standing up for yourself in a positive way if you feel you can.
- Try to ignore the bullying by calmly turning and walking away as quickly as you can.
- Tell someone about it.
