

A series of four interactive Family and Domestic Violence education sessions over the past month has produced some prize-winning artwork which carries the messages of the course loud and clear.

The PPAC initiative was conducted by Domestic & Family Violence Counsellor Yuriko, and covered types of abuse, the cycle of violence and how it affects families, recognising the signs and what to do from there and where to get help.

"I would like to congratulate the ladies who have completed the Domestic & Family Violence Education and Awareness sessions which have been running over a period of one month," PPAC Domestic & Family Violence Counsellor Yuriko Nakachi said. "Thank you to all the ladies who have come along and shown commitment...your effort is much appreciated."

The next series of our education and awareness session will commence on the 25th of March, 2025. If you would like to join our sessions please do not hesitate to contact Yuri at the Healing Center on 40604260.
