

PORMPUR PAANTHU NEWS WEEK

Issue 72: Monday 4 October 2021

PPAC's second week of school holidays has gone off with some exciting activities led by Jesse Wilson from JW Didgeridoos.

Jesse said it was a good week.

"I really enjoyed it and the kids were very respectful towards me," he said.

"We had some good engagement once I opened up the hall and played some music, then they would all come and run amok, playing basketball or touch.

"We did some boomerang-throwing at the beach with the youth, which they loved, followed by painting the boomerangs at the Pormpuraaw Art Centre.

"We had a movie and popcorn night on Wednesday, the kids were so excited."

He said he also had the opportunity to do some good one-on-one work with Kyle, Trent and Christopher.

"We went out bush for a swim and did some good cultural activities like identifying trees and ant hills.

"I also put them through some fitness routines over the 3-4 days, teaching them ways to be healthy mentally and physically.

"Really proud of Trent, who learnt how to circular breathe playing the didgeridoo – so proud of him."

PPAC CEO Ganthi Kuppusamy said Jesse had really stepped up during the week.

"Thanks to Jesse for coming and really engaging our youth in a lot of activities, with some help from our men's support, especially Raymond Shortjoe," she said.

"Jesse made it a special week for us and we're looking forward to his next visit."
